Program Overview

As part of the City of Oakland's Human Services Department, Oakland Unite invests in collaborative strategies that focus on youth and young adults at highest risk of violence. The Youth Squad Leaders take part in Oakland Unite's efforts to change community norms around violence by taking back community spaces. Friday Summer Nights events will take place at Arroyo Viejo Park and Hoover Elementary School.

Youth Squad Leadership activities include:

- Actively planning and staffing the Friday Night Events
- Outreach for the events by passing out flyers in the surrounding neighborhoods
- Participate in workshops on various topics including crime prevention strategies
- Acting as a representative of the program to engage community members and encourage program participation
