

OAKLAND UNITE COMMUNITY HEALING MINI-GRANTS APPLICATION

Oakland Unite, a division in the Human Services Department in the City of Oakland, is proud to announce the first Community Healing Mini-Grants funding opportunity, in partnership with Restorative Justice for Oakland Youth (RJOY), Urban Peace Movement (UPM), Communities United for Restorative Youth Justice (CURYJ), Building Opportunities for Self-Sufficiency (BOSS), and Roots Community Health Center.

Oakland Unite is charged with implementing violence intervention programs for the City of Oakland. Where violence occurs most frequently, neighborhood residents don't feel the impact of citywide reductions in violence. Oakland must support community leadership to promote healing. Community Healing Mini-Grants support innovative, resident-led and community-based violence reduction projects. Oakland Unite believes that healing and growth happen best when community leads the way. This is the first of two funding cycles, with another opportunity to apply in early 2020. For more information, go to OaklandUnite.org.

Applications are due by midnight on Monday, October 21, 2019.

Over $400,000 in Mini-Grant funding from the City of Oakland will be issued through Oakland Unite's Community Healing partner agencies. Mini-Grants of up to $15,000 for small non-profit organizations (with an annual budget of less than $500,000) and up to $5,000 for individuals (with an identified fiscal sponsor) will be awarded. Each Community Healing partner agency has brought together a committee of Oakland community members who will read and review the proposals based upon the scoring rubric on page 11. Award announcements are anticipated by November 21, 2019.
